

90-300.09. EXCLUDED PERSONAL PROPERTY

A. General This section provides information on those personal property items that are excluded in the GR Program.

B. Tools Used for Employment Tools used for employment are excluded for applicants/recipients if he/she is considered:

- AB;
- EL; or
- Temporary unable to work (disability or incapacity has lasted or is expected to last less than one year).

C. Wedding/Engagement Rings Wedding and engagement rings are excluded if they are for a current marriage or engagement or from a previous marriage than ended in the death of the spouse.

D. Waiver of Personal Property Value In cases of extreme hardship, the applicant, who owns two or more motor vehicles or whose one vehicle's excess FMV causes the applicant to exceed the property limit, may be referred for approval of a waiver of the property limit. No GR benefits may be authorized until the approval of the waiver request has been received from the Program Manager.

GRPG Letter #73 (1/14)

E. Burial Reserve or Burial Trust Fund Each GR applicant/recipient will be allowed to retain one burial arrangement such as a plot, crypt, or trust, regardless of value. This one burial arrangement will not be considered real or personal property. Burial arrangements owned by GR applicants/recipients that are in excess of one per applicant/recipient, will have the value count towards the overall $1000 property limit.

F. Specialized Adaptive Equipment for the Disabled Under the ADA, specialized adaptive equipment (i.e., motorized wheelchair) required for use by GR applicants/recipients with disabilities or their children who have disabilities is excluded from the property determination.

Continued on next page

90-300.09. EXCLUDED PERSONAL PROPERTY, Continued

Specialized Adaptive Equipment for the Disabled
(continued)

When determining the value of a motor vehicle that is specially equipped for a person with a disability or required for the GR applicant/recipient to transport his/her disabled child(ren), the special equipment is not considered to increase the value of the vehicle.
